

Bakerton.

Everybody is now very near done planting corn. Nearly all have a good stand.

Had a good tobacco season the first of this week. The farmers made good use of it. Some set out all of their crop, while others only a part.

The river is very low at this writing. Nothing but gasoline boats run now.

Mrs. H. A. Moss, of Louisville, is visiting her mother here.

Mrs. Ed Morgan, of Oklahoma, is in on a visit.

Misses Stella Parrish and Bettie Jane Irvin went to Burkesville shopping to-day.

Messrs. Young and Snow, of Burkesville, and Messrs. Robinson and Dickinson, of Glasgow, were here last Wednesday.

You will find Mr. and Mrs. Claud Young at their new home on main street.

The well drillers are on the last well unless they get oil. This is the fourth hole and the first three are dry, and if this one is dry it will give this territory a black eye.

Cumberland county now has about 25 cars and more thinking of buying. Tilden Waggener has bought him a new one. He is going to travel in his car for the Cumberland Grocery people. He can sell everybody if he don't forget how to stop it.

We have had one case of measles in this town and are thinking we may have trouble with small pox, as they have it on little Renox creek.

Mr. Renfro, with J. M. Robinson Norton & Co., was here yesterday selling dry goods.

The National Cash Register man, was here yesterday. He sold S. C. Bibey one of his machines.

LIFE OF SAVAGE
TRULY SENSIBLE

Ailments Almost Unknown by Aborigines Are Common Now.

The theory that most of the ailments of today are caused almost entirely by those habits that distinguish the white man from his long ago brother, the savage, is more widely discussed every day.

The savage, in many ways, was a more sensible being than the man who made war on him and then seized his birthright. It has been said, by medical authorities, that nine out of ten cases of sickness can be traced to a disordered stomach, and that the ailments are due, in a large measure, to excessive eating and drinking and to little healthful outdoor exercise.

Common sense should be used in our mode of living. It was with this end in view that Joseph Von Trimbach, the noted chemist and originator of so many health aids, gathered herbs, roots, barks and flowers from the most remote parts of the world and spent years of his life in experimenting and study before he arrived at the solution of the problem of relieving stomach troubles.

He named his discovery Tanlac. Tanlac has met with instant favor wherever it has been introduced. It has created a romance in the business world. Hundreds of thousands of sufferers have realized the benefits of this great reconstructive tonic.

Tanlac is believed to act more favorably, because of the nature of its ingredients, on ailments of the stomach, liver and kidneys, and on catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes, which, when neglected, are so often communicated to the vital organs themselves, than any other known preparation. This ideal reconstructive tonic, appetizer, invigorant and builder of tissues has been lauded by men and women in all walks of life. It has proved a boon for sufferers from those all too common ailments.

Tanlac now is being especially introduced in Columbia, at the Page & Hamilton drug store, where the Tanlac man explains its merits and the results which may be expected from its use.

Mr. Noah Akin and family visited at Walter Harvey's last week.

Your scribe and family and Mrs. J. T. Rosson visited at W. S. Pickett's from Saturday until Monday. On Sunday we attended the Children's day at Pleasant Ridge, near Keltner. There was a large crowd and lots of dinner and a fine lot of marches, drills and recitations. The children showed that they had been well trained. The star recitation was recited by a three year old girl of Marshall Moss. She recited so it was heard all over the house. There has been a new Methodist church built at Keltner with a large seating capacity. It is built in the latest design. There is a new Presbyterian church under construction there.

Our county is improving now. Mr. Jim Gilpin, of Sparksville, has purchased an auto. It is a
